To whom it may concern,

I am writing to provide a character reference for my dear friend, Geneen Georgiev. I have known Geneen for over 40 years, having grown up together on Gabriola Island, BC. Throughout our friendship, I have witnessed first hand Geneen's remarkable qualities and contributions to her community and beyond.

Geneen is a multifaceted individual with a passion for many collective activities. She possesses a unique blend of creativity, entrepreneurship, and genuine care for others. Whether she is running her own business or collaborating with like-minded individuals she has always been extremely helpful and lovely to be around. Geneen consistently demonstrates dedication and innovation in her endeavors.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Geneen is a compassionate and caring individual who always prioritizes the well-being of those around her. She approaches every interaction with empathy and kindness, making her a trusted friend to many.

In summary, Geneen Georgiev is an invaluable asset to any individual, Community or organization fortunate enough to have her involvement. Her passion, creativity, and dedication makes her an exceptional individual, and I wholeheartedly recommend her without hesitation for this privilege to obtain a TUP.

Should you require any further information or clarification, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Hayden Harvey
