Facilitating Conversations about the new Gabriola OCP

On-line comments based on thoughtful analysis may be a good way to get useful community feedback on the new Gabriola OCP. I suggest the creation of an OCP feedback site (not FB!) where users can post comments and suggestions and read the comments of others and respond to them. It would be most useful if there could be sub-sections related to OCP topics of specific interest, such as: Community vision and values, First Nations interests, Climate, Land uses, Housing, Water supply, DPAs and others, plus a section for general comments. The site should be moderated.

Thank you for the information session on Thursday evening.
