The Galiano Island Official Community Plan Bylaw No. 108, 1995, is amended as follows:

1. Schedule A, Section II, 1.4 Rural Residential is amended by inserting the following as a new Rural Residential policy, and by making such consequential numbering alterations to effect this change:

“For the properties described as District Lot 86, Galiano Island, Cowichan District, zoning shall establish a minimum average parcel area of 38 hectares, with a minimum average subdivision parcel area as low as 2 hectares (5 acres) on the Rural Residential designated portion of the lands and 20 hectares (49 acres) on the Forest designated portion of the lands, applicable only if the landowner provides land to be transferred to the Province of British Columbia, Penelakut Tribe, the Capital Regional District or other transferees designated in the Land Use Bylaw amendment, to be used for conservation, ecosystem protection, public parkland, community forest, or trails. Approval of any such rezoning shall be subject to the following conditions:

- i) the area of land to be transferred shall include all of the land designated Nature Protection and Park;
- ii) incorporation of a siting plan into the Land Use Bylaw identifying the location and area of the residential home plate, including driveways, on each lot in the proposed subdivision, sited in a manner that avoids sensitive ecosystems and hazardous lands, and minimizes extension of services; and
- iii) the registration of a s. 219 covenant granted to the LTC which restricts the layout and area of the future lots to provide for the contiguous clustering of lots in a manner that protects the integrity of forest ecosystems, surface water and groundwater supplies and minimizes the impact of residential services such as roads.”

- Schedule B (Land Use Designation) is amended for the lands legally described District Lot 86 Galiano Island, Cowichan District as depicted in the map below.
