

Galiano Island Local Trust Committee

Groundwater Sustainability Project – Implementation Phase

The First Phases of the project developed information and data as part of a phased ecological approach to groundwater management on Galiano, Mayne, North Pender, South Pender, and Saturna Islands. The current phase will consider policy and regulatory changes to better protect groundwater resources