

Background

The LTC identified a “Comprehensive OCP Review” as a top priority project and held an early community information meeting in April 2018 to gather ideas on the scope of the project. Support for the Islands Trust’s “preserve and protect mandate”, including a focus on strengthening relations with Tla’amin Nation and other Nations, is an overarching priority for this review.