

On Oct 4, 2020, at 11:15 AM, Adina Hildebrandt <[REDACTED]> wrote:

>

>

> Dear Island Trustees,

>

> Please make housing a priority for our community. I believe we are at a tipping point that requires immediate attention before we lose the diverse nature of Salt Spring's residents. I realize there is so much work to do, on the environment, on helping businesses thrive, on building capacity in our community, but what is the point of all this hard work if we are not a diverse thriving population of families, workers, artists, retirees, etc. etc.

>

> As a resident and business owner of [REDACTED], I have watched in sadness as years have gone by with little movement on the housing crisis.

>

> This is your chance to change things.

>

> Adina Hildebrandt